Kiawah's Precious Bobcats

Did you know that Kiawah is home to a small but integral population of bobcats? They are most active at dusk and dawn, and are private, solitary creatures, so it is rare to spot one. Bobcats do not pose a threat to public safety, but remember, as with all wild animals, do not approach them. Pick up small children and pets if you happen to spot a bobcat. Learn more about efforts to support Kiawah's bobcats and their habitat: Meet the Bobcats; Map: Bobcat Areas

Inlet Cove Cottages

We are fortunate to manage two cottages in the lovely the Inlet Cove community, 78 and 81. Inlet Cove offers a gated entry, community pool, and a short walk to the beach. In addition, it has a great community dock, where you can fish, or relax and enjoy a beautiful sunset from the rocking chairs on the large deck overlooking the river. A nearby footbridge offers a picturesque view of the marsh and its wildlife. Located off Beachwalker Drive, Inlet Cove is only a short bike ride or drive to Freshfields or other fun Kiawah activities.

The Station at Freshfields

Whether you're looking for quick, tasty gourmet deli sandwiches, or a fish fry platter made to order, The Station is a great option for picnic fare or easy take-out after a long day in the sun. They also offer a variety of made in-house grab 'n go salads, sandwiches, fresh coffee, fountain drinks, and a nice selection of beer and wine. There is a small seating area as well. The Station is also a convenient place to gas up, get a carwash, and stock up on typical convenience store snacks when heading off the island.
